I'm in that .01% for 8k stamina points. woo woo. Great fun, and a new leaderboard for me to climb, but seems like it might need a *little* work?

Hit detection on targets on the outer edges of the bag seems a little inconsistent. From a gameplay perspective, I get the reasoning behind the outer edge/hook double ups, without them you have less variety, but the movement is just super awkward without something physical to make contact with.

Also finding that hits that require I double up (blue, blue/h red,red) giving me a 0/fail on the second hit if I hit too fast in succession.

. Freaking amazing, such a good workout !. I was able to get in finally. It is a great training game. Now maybe you can make a focus ball or double end bag workout . The thrill of the fight and Creed rise to glory has a swinging focus ball training workout in their game.. A lot of boxing games have a heavy bag but this is one of the best ones. Nice add to the fitness lineup. Can't go wrong.
